CODE OF PRACTICE FOR GENERAL INSURANCE/TAKAFUL AGENT

This code applies to general insurance and general takaful business but does not apply to reinsurance business. The Principal undertake to enforce this code and to use their endeavours to ensure that all agents involved in selling, soliciting and servicing general insurance and general takaful business observe the code of practice.

It shall be an obligation of an agent to conduct business with utmost good faith and integrity.

In the case of complaints from prospective policyholder/participant the Principal concerned shall require an agent to co-operate so that the facts can be established. An agent shall inform prospective policyholder/participant complaining that he can take his problem directly to the Principal concerned.

A General Sales Ethics

1. An agent shall:-

- i. where appropriate, make prior appointment to call. Unsolicited or unarranged calls shall be made at an hour likely to be suitable to the prospective policyholder/participant;
- ii. when he makes contact with the prospective policyholder/participant, identify himself as an agent and explain as soon as possible that the arrangements he wishes to discuss include general insurance and general takaful business. He shall make it known that he is an agent for one or more Principal, as the case may be;
- iii. produce his agent identification card upon request by the prospective policyholder/participant
- iv. disclose his registration number if so requested and identify his registration number on his business cards if they are distributed;
- v. ensure as far as possible that the policy/certificate of takaful proposed is suitable to the needs and resources of the prospective policyholder/participant;
- vi. give advice only on those insurance or takaful product and matters in which he is knowledgeable/competent to deal with or otherwise seek advice from his insurer(s) when necessary;
- vii. explain the specific differences to which he is referring when making comparisons with other types of product and/or policies/certificates;
- viii. treat all information supplied by the prospective policyholder/participant as completely confidential to himself and to the Principal to which the business is being offered.
- ix. Ensure that the calculation for the premium/contribution shall only be carried out by the agent, although agent's employee may respond to policyholders' queries via any social media platform.
- x. Only sign the cover note when entering into a contract of insurance/takaful with policyholders.

2. An agent shall not:-

- i. inform the prospective policyholder/participant that his name has been given by another person unless he is prepared to disclose that person's name if requested to do so by the prospective policyholder/participant and has that person's consent to make that disclosure;

- ii. make inaccurate or misleading statements about any insurer(s)/takaful operator(s) or their products and/or policies/certificates or any another agent;
- iii. make comparisons with other type of policy/certificate unless he makes clear the differing coverage terms and condition of each policy/certificate;
- iv. prevent the prospective policyholder/participant from stating material facts to the Principal or induce the prospective policyholder/participant not to state them;
- v. induce the prospective policyholder/participant to make a misrepresentation to the Principal in regard to material facts; and
- vi. Impose any charge in addition to the policy premium/takaful contribution without disclosing the amount and purpose of such charge to the policyholder before the binding of the policy.

B Explanation of the Policy/Certificate of Takaful

An agent shall:-

- i. identify the Principal he represents;
- ii. refer to the Product's Transparency and Disclosure Sheets and explain the cover afforded by each policy/certificate recommended and also its exclusion to ensure that the prospective policyholder understands what he is buying/participating;
- iii. draw attention to any restrictions, exclusions and conditions applying to the policy/certificate;
- iv. if necessary, obtain from the Principal, specialist advice in relation to item (ii) above; and

C Disclosure of Underwriting Information

An agent shall, in obtaining underwriting information or in the completion of the proposal form:-

- i. avoid influencing the prospective policyholder/participant and make it clear that all the answers or statements are the latter's prospective policyholder/participant own responsibility;
- ii. ensure that the consequences of non-disclosure and inaccuracies are pointed out to the prospective policyholder/participant by drawing his attention to the relevant statement in the proposal form and by explaining them himself to the prospective policyholder/participant; and
- iii. disclose all information received from the prospective policyholder/participant relating to the acceptance of the risks to the Principal he represents.

D Accounts and Financial Aspects

An agent shall, if authorized to collect money in accordance with the terms of his agency appointment:-

- i. keep a proper account of all financial transactions with a policyholder/participant which involve the transmission of money in respect of policy/certificate of takaful;

- ii. acknowledge receipt all money received in connection with policy/certificate of takaful and shall distinguish the premium/contribution from any other payment included in the money;
- iii. remit any such money so collected in strict conformity with his agency agreement.

E Documentation

An agent shall not withhold from the policyholder/participant any written evidence or documentation relating to the policy/certificate of takaful.

F Claims

- i. If the policyholder/participant advises an agent of an incident which might give rise to a claim, an agent shall inform the Principal he represents without delay and thereafter give prompt advice to the policyholder/participant of the Principal's requirements concerning the claims, including the provision of information received from the policyholder/participant to the Principal without delay.
- ii. No indication of acceptance or rejection of the claim or any admission or denial of fact or liability shall be given to the policyholder/participant without written instruction from the Principal he represents and he must make clear to the policyholder/participant that all correspondence made pursuant to the Principal's investigation and processing of the claim is strictly on a without prejudice basis.
- iii. Notice to an agent shall not be deemed to be notice to the Principal.

G Rates Fixed by the Principal

All rates shall be fixed by the Principal and the agent shall not charge the policyholder/participant a rate above the gross rate set out by the Principal.

H Publicity

No advertisement or other printed material concerning the Principal he represent shall be published or circulated by the agent unless a copy thereof has been approved by a duly authorized official of the Principal he represents.

I Premium/Contribution Refund

Any refund of premium/contribution due under a contract/aqad of insurance/takaful shall be paid by the Principal directly to the policyholder/participant and such refund shall not be paid or credited to any other person, including an agent. Any premium/contribution refund to the policyholder/participant should be calculated after deducting pro-rated agent's commission/wakalah fee.

J Company/Corporate Governance

- 1) A registered agent soliciting insurance/takaful business shall have policies and procedures on handling client monies that cover matters such as the following:
 - i) Client accounts are separate and clearly distinguishable from your own bank accounts;
 - ii) Client accounts are held with licensed banks in Brunei;

- iii) Disallowing monies other than client monies within the account, except in specific circumstances such as to achieve or maintain a minimum balance, to receive interest, or to receive commission from insurer;
